Fundraising Boost

- Keep promoting on social media
- Match your fundraising- speak to your employer and ask if they can match your fundraising efforts
- If your supporters are donating via your or our Just Giving page, ask them to tick the GIFT AID box, we then get an additional 25% added to the money we get, boosting their contribution at no additional cost to them.
- Up your target- doing well? AMAZING! Why not increase your target?

Fundraising Aftercare

You've raised an AMAZING amount, thank you! We really appreciate all your efforts.

Here's what to do next.

- Send all pictures to media@stayingput.org.uk plus the amount you've raised and any social handles so we can publicly thank you for all your efforts.
- We would prefer all donations to come in to us electronically, either by our fundraising page or by bank transfer.
- Ensure your online fundraising page is up to date.
- Make a bank transfer- email fundraising@stayingput.org.uk for more

Jo's Story

Jo was supported by Staying Put to leave an abusive relationship. Here, she tells her story.

Fundraising T&Cs

For Donors/Sponsors

All donations, made directly via our website or our LoveGiving in response to a particular appeal or campaign, are subject to the LoveGiving's Terms of use, which you can find here: <https://expenseplus.co.uk/legal/terms-of-service>

Using this platform also automatically assumes, when donating, that you accept the Privacy Policy, which can be found here: <https://expenseplus.co.uk/legal/privacy-policy>

As such they comply with all General Data Protection Requirements (GDPR) AND the guidance set out by the Fundraising Regulator and the Charity Commission of England and Wales.

As a responsible organisation, we will only contact you if you agree to receive further information from us by ticking the 'Want to stay in Touch' box on the donation form.

Participating in Events

Whether participating in an event advertised on our website, or if you create your own event, the following T&C's apply:

Your use of Staying Put's Website

- By using our website you accept these terms and conditions and that you agree to comply with them.
- You can view any non-password protected part of the website and use the material there for your own Fundraising purposes ONLY and not for reproduction or on any other website for commercial gain
- You must notify and seek permission from Staying Put before creating links to other websites
- You cannot copy, store, or transmit in any form or by any other means, any part of the website without Staying Put's written permission, other than for your own fundraising purposes, on our behalf

Copyright and Trademarks

Fundraising T&Cs

Third Party Websites

Staying Put uses 'Just Giving' and 'Run for Charity' websites to advertise events in which you can take part. As third party providers, Staying Put is not responsible for the content of those third party sites. Links to those sites are provided for your convenience only and do not imply any endorsement of the material on those sites, or any association with the operators.

When creating your own pages, either linked to Staying Put's Just Giving page, or on a platform of your own choice, you agree to the following:

- I will do my best to raise money for Staying Put, especially if I have set a target
- I will ensure that I fundraise in a way that does not endanger or harm myself or any supporter or member of the public
- I will respect the privacy of others and not fundraise in a persistent or aggressive way
- I recognise that when fundraising for Staying Put, my actions will be linked to Staying Put and their cause and I will not do anything to bring Staying Put's name into disrepute
- Where possible, I will display Staying Put's name and Charity number (1116162)
- I will collect and pay all funds raised to Staying Put within two months of the event's close.
- I will get approval from Staying Put before approaching any companies, press or celebrities to support my activity
- I will not collect donations door-to-door or in a public place without obtaining a collector's licence from my local authority or the police.
- I will not hold a raffle, lottery or prize draw without first contacting Staying Put for information on the laws and regulations of the local authority and the Gambling

Commission

- I will not sell alcohol or tobacco products
- I will not raise funds for Staying Put without their prior knowledge (signing up to events via our website or Just Giving page constitutes 'informing us of your intent.'
- I acknowledge Staying Put cannot take responsibility for any losses or harm made through my activity, nor accept any liability arising from my activity
- If I have to cancel or withdraw from an activity for any reason, I will inform Staying Put as early as possible. Any advance fees paid (e.g. a race entry fee) will not be refundable.
- I understand that Staying Put reserves the right to stop fundraising at any point, if they believe my fundraising is not safe, lawful, respectful or may do myself or others harm or damage.

Thank you
